

Welcome

Female Voice: The Katie School of Insurance and Financial Services at Illinois State University is one of the premier undergraduate insurance and risk management programs in the nation. We are committed to the preparation of future leaders through industry involvement, innovative teaching, and professional development programs. The Katie School at ISU – providing opportunities to shape our industry.